Salt Lake is so far from orthodox in its religious tendencies that there are to be some diversions even during the sombre season beginning next Wednesday. And it is safe to say that more of the fair sex will be in retirement for the rest from great social activity than for the care of the individual soul. However to the outside dividual soul. However, to the outside world they will all be in sackcloth and ashes, and if they have no sins of their own for which to mourn they can their own for which to mourn they can surely find things for which their neighbors should repent. So, putting aside the world, the flesh and the important member in the lower regions, the fair maiden of the society world will go into retirement next Wednesday for the ensuing forty days—and nights—to emerge at the blessed Easertide washed of all sins and ready for a new bout with the powers men-tioned.

Judge and Mrs. O. W. Powers gave a charmingly appointed dinner last evening at which a number of their friends were entertained. The affair was characteristics. was characterized by the hospitality and the cordiality which is always in evidence in this home. The table dec-orations were most artistic, two baskets of red carnations tied with rib bons forming the main floral part. Plumosa surrounded the baskets and individual vases of the carnations were at each place. The board was lighted with red candles, and shades of the same color decorated the candelahra. The guests of the evening were labra. The guests of the evening were Dr. and Mrs. D. Moore Lindsay, Mr. and Mrs. W. Mont Ferry, Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. One of the prettiest events of the week was the bowling party given Saturday, the 14th, by Miss Tulie Baker in honor of Miss Meda Corey. After a couple of hours spent in bowling, the guests were conveyed to the home of Miss Baker, where an elaborate luncheon was served. Covers were laid for twelve. The party numbered the intimate girl friends of Miss Corey, and each one was presented with a dainty bowl as a memento of the event.

Society was much interested in the marriage of Miss Meda Corey and Mr. Claude Roberts, which took place Wednesday at the home of the bride's parents. The young couple will be at home after March 10 at 577 Twenty-sixth street. The event has for a month past dominated to a considerable degree the social doings of a charming circle of young ladies composed of the Three-times-three club and their immediate friends. Numerous "showers" were given in honor of the bride and at several other social affairs she was guest of honor.

MISS CLARISA KERBY and Her Marvelous Growth of Hair.

the great Altenheim Medical Dispensary

the great Altenheim Medical Dispensary has just made the startling announcement that he has produced a compound that grows hair on any bald head. The doctor makes the claim that after experiments, taking years to complete, he has at last reached the goal of his ambition. To the doctor all heads are alike. There are none which cannot be cured by this remarkable remedy. The record of the cures already made is truly marvelous and were it not for the high standing of the great physician and the convincing testimony of thousands of citizens all over the country it would seem too miraculous to be true.

There can be no doubt of the doctor's earnestness in making his claims, nor can his cures be disputed. He does not ask any man, woman or child to take his or anyone else's word for it, but he stands ready and willing to send free trial packages of this great hair restorative to anyone who writes to him for it, enclosing a 2-cent stamp to prepay postage. In a single night it has started hair to growing on heads bald for years. It has stopped falling hair in one hour. It never fails, no matter what the condition, age or sex. Old men and youngmen, women and children, all have profited by the free use of this great new discovery. If you are bald, if your hair is failing out, or if your hair, eyebrows or eyelashes are thin or short, write the Altenheim Medicai Dispensary. 7948 Foso building, Cincinnati, Ohio, enclosing a 2-cent stamp to prepay postage for a free package, and in a short time you will be entirely restored.
